

Beyond Virginity: Chastity

There is a difference...

- o Virgin means "Not having had sexual intercourse
- o Chaste means "Morally pure in thought or act; clean and spotless."
- o The world tells us we should be virgins. (at least for now). God says I want you to be chaste.
I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, to Christ, so that I might present you as a pure virgin to him. (2 Corinthians 11:2, NIV)

Why are we tempted?

- o God created us for sex, so we are sexually curious
- o God created us to be attracted to the opposite sex, so we feel sexual attractions
- o God created us to enjoy sex with our spouses, so we experience sexual hunger

The world tells us we can satisfy these feelings and still be a virgin...

- o We explore our sexual curiosity with obscene talk and sexual innuendo
- o We indulge our sexual attraction by looking at photos, movies and television shows that expose us to sexual images
- o We can even satisfy our sexual hunger by engaging in things that while not intercourse still seek to gratify our sexual urges.
- o We take comfort in the fact that technically we are still virgins

The fact is that while we may still be virgins, we are not chaste.

God wants more than just our virginity -- He demands our chastity.
